EXPLANATORY NOTES

This bill amends the Civil Code to provide that a minor child 14 years of age or over may act alone in applying for a change of name to the registrar of civil status and that, in such a case, the application will not be granted, except for a compelling reason, if both the minor child's parents, as legal tutors, or the tutor, if any, have not been notified of the application or if one of them objects to it.

The Civil Code is amended to allow a parent who is aware that the minor child's other parent intends to object to a change of name for the minor child to submit an application for a change of name to the court rather than to the registrar of civil status.

The Civil Code is also amended to allow a minor child to obtain from the registrar of civil status a change of designation of sex as it appears in the act of birth. More specifically, the bill provides that an application for a change of designation of sex for a minor child under 14 years of age may be made by the child's tutor and that the change will not be granted, except for a compelling reason, if the other tutor has not been notified of the application or objects to it. In addition, a tutor who is aware that the other tutor intends to object to the change of designation of sex of a minor child under 14 years of age may submit an application to the court rather than to the registrar of civil status. An application for a minor child who is 14 years of age or over may be made by the child alone or by the child's tutor, with the child's consent.

The Charter of human rights and freedoms is amended to provide for an explicit protection against discrimination based on gender identity.

Lastly, the Regulation respecting change of name and of other particulars of civil status is amended to prescribe the conditions that a minor child will be required to meet to obtain a change of designation of sex as it appears in the child's act of birth and also to ensure consistency with the amendments made to the Civil Code.

- Civil Code of Québec;
- Charter of human rights and freedoms (chapter C-12).

REGULATION AMENDED BY THIS BILL:
