- (210) Mr. Jolin-Barrette (Borduas) – 10 November 2016
To the Minister of Justice

On 13 July 2015, pursuant to section 115.1 of the Professional Code, the Minister of Justice constituted a new bureau of disciplinary council chairs known as the Bureau des présidents. The creation of this Bureau was an innovation in the professional justice system. It aimed particularly at correcting the problem of the very long periods that certain disciplinary council chairs of several professional orders took to deliberate.

Over the past year and half, eleven chairs have been appointed. They have handed down 352 decisions, as at 31 May 2016, concerning members of professional orders. The chairs' powers are important. Furthermore, the Office des professions wants the Bureau des présidents to handle one thousand complaints per year.

It is urgent that a code of ethics governing the work of chairs be established.

The chairs' code of ethics is not yet in force. We have the following questions for the Minister of Justice:

1. We would like to know when the code of ethics for the chairs of the Bureau des présidents of the Office des professions will come into force?
2. Will the Minister of Justice develop a code of ethics for members of professional orders sitting on the disciplinary council?
