- (242) Mr. Bonnardel (Granby) – 11 May 2017
To the Minister of Finance

In the monthly reports on financial transactions for fiscal 2016-2017, published by the Ministry of Finance, the budgetary balance forecast for non-budget-funded bodies and special funds, which appears on page 1, went from $424 million, to -$37 million and to -$727 million during the fiscal year. The first forecast was taken from the March 2016 Economic Plan, the second from the October 2016 Economic Plan Update and the last from the March 2017 Economic Plan.

Can the Ministry of Finance provide a breakdown of the changes made to revenues and/or expenditures of non-budget-funded bodies and special funds for the budgetary balance forecast for both of these consolidated entities to go from $424 million, to -$37 million and to -$727 million, for fiscal 2016-2017?

- (243) Mr. Martel (Nicolet-Bécancour) – 17 May 2017
To the Minister of Transport, Sustainable Mobility and Transport Electrification

In its initial 2009-2023 capital plan, the Société des traversiers du Québec (STQ) provided for the necessary costs of renovating and adapting certain wharfs at the Matane, Tadoussac, Sorel and Lévis crossings.

The estimated costs for this work rose significantly in recent years, increasing up to four times more than what had initially been provided for.

The Minister for Maritime Affairs had explained at the time, in 2015, that between initial estimated costs and actual completion costs, there could sometimes be variations.

The STQ confirmed, in the answers it provided during the consideration of the estimates of expenditure, that the costs of adapting the wharfs in Sorel would now reach $50 million and that the project would not be completed before 2021.

Can the Minister of Transport, Sustainable Mobility and Transport Electrification tell us what were or what will the final costs be for each of the previously mentioned projects and give us the exact reasons for the increase in costs?

Can he also give us the reasons for this significant new increase in costs to reconstruct various landing docks at the Sorel crossing, which costs have risen from $40 million to $50 million between 2015-2016 and 2016-2017?

(244) Mr. Jolin-Barrette (Borduas) – 29 May 2017
To the Minister of Finance

The main mission of the Maison nationale des Patriotes (hereinafter MNP), located in Saint-Denis-sur-Richelieu, is to disseminate knowledge that underlines the importance of the history of the Patriotes and of daily life in Lower Canada by highlighting events through exhibitions, publications, a collection and an annual program of educational and cultural activities. The SODEC owns the Maison Jean-Baptiste-Mâsse and the Meunerie Adréas Bonnier, in which the MNP activities take place. The MNP, as guardian and administrator of this property, sees to their conservation and keeps a collection that showcases the Patriotes' heritage.

The MNP's mission is valuable not only in terms of culture, but symbolically. Historically, their heroic fight left us a civil legacy. In 1837 and 1838, the Patriotes' rebellions provoked armed uprisings to demand the establishment of responsible government. These events are inventoried in Québec's cultural heritage register.

However, this mission to foster awareness of an important part of our collective history is now in jeopardy. Following the establishment of the new program Aide au fonctionnement des institutions muséales (hereinafter PAFIM), financial assistance to the MNP will be reduced. With the new parameters, payments will be cut by 2% in 2016-2017, 9% in 2017-2018, 15% in 2018-2019 and include a projected cut of 20% in 2019-2020. Significant cuts will directly affect the MNP's role as a vehicle to disseminate our history and our culture.

In line with this mission, the Maison nationale des Patriotes also runs the Centre d'exposition de la Prison-des-Patriotes, located in the basement of the Au-Pied-du-Courant heritage building where the SAQ currently has its head office. The Centre d'exposition de la Prison-des-Patriotes opened its doors in 2003, and from then on, the Maison nationale des Patriotes was responsible for the permanent exhibition. It also organizes conferences on these premises as well as temporary thematic exhibitions. However, the SAQ announced that its head office would move in 2018, thus jeopardizing the activities scheduled to take place at the Centre d'exposition de la Prison-des-Patriotes.

What does the minister intend to do to minimize the major consequences of the decision to move the SAQ's head office? What measures will be taken to ensure the continuity of the Centre d'exposition de la Prison-des-Patriotes located at Pied-du-Courant? The survival of this establishment's vocation is primary so that the MNP may remain a fundamental institution for the dissemination of the history of our democracy.

(245) Mr. Picard (Chutes-de-la-Chaudière) – 29 May 2017
To the Minister responsible for Labour

During the consideration of the estimates of expenditure carried out last 3 May in the Committee on Labour and the Economy – labour segment, I asked the Minister responsible for Labour a question about inmates receiving income replacement benefits from the Commission des normes, de l'équité, et de la sécurité du travail (hereinafter the CNESST). Unfortunately, the minister was unable to provide me with a complete and satisfactory answer.

When an employee receives income replacement benefits (hereinafter IRB) owing to an industrial accident, the employer may temporarily assign the employee to other duties, in accordance with section 170 of the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases (hereinafter the AIAOD). The question concerns the specific situation of a worker who is incarcerated while receiving income replacement benefits but whose employer has provided a temporary assignment.

Section 142 of the AIAOD provides that payment of an indemnity may be suspended if the worker, without reasonable grounds, neglects or refuses to perform the work temporarily assigned to him by his employer. According to the Commission des lésions professionnelles, incarceration cannot be considered valid grounds that the worker can invoke.

Furthermore, section 363 of the AIAOD states that where the Commission, following a decision under revision, or the Administrative Labour Tribunal cancels or reduces the amount of an income replacement indemnity, the sums already paid to a beneficiary are not recoverable unless they were obtained through bad faith, and this is the decision that was in fact handed down in a similar situation where the Commissioner underlined that no provision of the Act allows the CSST to suspend payment of income replacement indemnities retroactively to the date of the decision.

Lastly, section 326, paragraph 1, of the AIAOD provides that the Committee shall impute to the employer the cost of benefits payable by reason of an industrial accident suffered by a worker while in the employ of the employer.

1. For the past fifteen years and per year, how many persons per year received income replacement benefits while incarcerated?
2. For the past fifteen years and per year, how many of these incarcerated persons receiving income replacement benefits were offered a temporary work assignment under section 170 of the AIAOD?
3. For the past fifteen years and per year, what is the amount of the benefits that could not be recovered under section 363 of the AIAOD, broken down by grounds (cancellation or reduction of IRB)?
4. For the past fifteen years, how many employers have been held liable under section 326, paragraph 1, of the AIAOD, while they offered temporary work assignments and were able to offer work that their employees were reasonably fit to perform, but for which workers could not report to work owing to their incarceration?
