Mr. Picard (Chutes-de-la-Chaudière) – 29 May 2017
To the Minister responsible for Labour

During the consideration of the estimates of expenditure carried out last 3 May in the Committee on Labour and the Economy – labour segment, I asked the Minister responsible for Labour a question about inmates receiving income replacement benefits from the Commission des normes, de l’équité, et de la sécurité du travail (hereinafter the CNESST). Unfortunately, the minister was unable to provide me with a complete and satisfactory answer.

When an employee receives income replacement benefits (hereinafter IRB) owing to an industrial accident, the employer may temporarily assign the employee to other duties, in accordance with section 170 of the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases (hereinafter the AIAOD). The question concerns the specific situation of a worker who is incarcerated while receiving income replacement benefits but whose employer has provided a temporary assignment.

Section 142 of the AIAOD provides that payment of an indemnity may be suspended if the worker, without reasonable grounds, neglects or refuses to perform the work temporarily assigned to him by his employer. According to the Commission des lésions professionnelles, incarceration cannot be considered valid grounds that the worker can invoke.

Furthermore, section 363 of the AIAOD states that where the Commission, following a decision under revision, or the Administrative Labour Tribunal cancels or reduces the amount of an income replacement indemnity, the sums already paid to a beneficiary are not recoverable unless they were obtained through bad faith, and this is the decision that was in fact handed down in a similar situation where the Commissioner underlined that no provision of the Act allows the CSST to suspend payment of income replacement indemnities retroactively to the date of the decision.

Lastly, section 326, paragraph 1, of the AIAOD provides that the Committee shall impute to the employer the cost of benefits payable by reason of an industrial accident suffered by a worker while in the employ of the employer.
1. For the past fifteen years and per year, how many persons per year received income replacement benefits while incarcerated?
2. For the past fifteen years and per year, how many of these incarcerated persons receiving income replacement benefits were offered a temporary work assignment under section 170 of the AIAOD?

(248) Mr. Gaudreault (Jonquière) – 13 June 2017
To the Minister responsible for Labour

A citizen of Saguenay, Mr. Claude Truchon, has been making representations to the Commission des normes, de l’équité, de la santé et de la sécurité au travail, asking that it acknowledge the occupational origin of his disease as a result of exposure to asbestos when he carried out work at the Chicoutimi hospital. For several weeks now, the Minister's office has been aware of Mr. Truchon's situation. Mr. Truchon's story was even featured in a report on the program Enquête last March.

My question is as follows:

Does the Minister plan to act quickly so that Mr. Truchon may receive the CNESST's support, both financially and psychologically, as required by his personal circumstances?

(249) Mr. Traversy (Terrebonne) – 14 June 2017
To the Minister of Tourism

The Outaouais region was designated as a gateway to Québec in 2012. Despite this designation, no particular measure or funding has been announced. However, funding for the other two gateways amounts to $50 million, which is $30 million for Montréal and $20 million for Québec.
We would therefore like to know:

- Are any special measures or budgets provided for the Outaouais region as a gateway to Québec?
