(264) Mr. Traversy (Terrebonne) – 17 October 2017
To the Minister of Tourism

A Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu company, Intello Technologies, contacted us to inform us of the Société du Centre des congrès de Québec's decision to not renew their contract after 12 years of services. The loss of this contract is surprising, since during the 12 years of services, they had never received any negative comments justifying the termination of their contract. The president of Intello Technologies was shocked to find out that a foreign company, Freeman Audio, had gotten this contract without having to go through the bidding process, contrary to Intello Technologies, which, 12 years ago, was required to win a bid in order to get the contract. Finally, Intello Technologies didn't get the chance to modify their offer to retain the contract since they were contacted only to be informed that their contract had not been renewed and that Freeman Audio had gotten it.

Our question:

What does the Minister intend to do to prevent Québec companies from being set aside, without any prior warning and without any chance of modifying their offer to the benefit of foreign companies?

(265) Mr. Traversy (Terrebonne) – 17 October 2017
To the Minister of Tourism

Several stakeholders, particularly the mayor of Québec City and hotel associations, are very concerned about the lack of resources to oversee the tourist industry and to sanction illegal hosts. Less than 30 Tourism department inspectors must control thousands of ads posted online throughout the province. The number of inspectors is insufficient and they are unable to enforce the regulations that have been put in place. In Québec City, for instance, there are over 2000 Airbnb ads, while there are less than 600 valid tourist residence certificates. These platforms allow illegal hosts to act with impunity since the company platform does not make the registered hosts' data available. Furthermore, a certain lack of precision in the law easily allows applicable regulations to be circumvented and thus run counter to the spirit of the law.

Our question:

What does the Minister of Tourism intend to do to oversee tourist accommodation online platforms, limit illegal accommodation, avoid the devitalization of our cities' core neighbourhoods and avoid upward pressure on rent?

(266) Mr. Schneeberger (Drummond–Bois-Francis) – 17 October 2017
To the Minister of Education, Recreation and Sports

In 2013, the federal government modified section 83 of the Criminal Code R.S.C. (1985), c. C-46 to prohibit "prize fights", unless the sport is recognized by the International Olympic Committee or is held with the permission or under the authority of an athletic board, commission or similar body established by or under the authority of the province's legislature. However, the Government of Québec still has not addressed the legality of prize fights and those officially designated by organizations.

Last spring, several amateur combat sport competitions had to be cancelled owing to complaints received by police services.

During the consideration of the estimates of expenditure of the Ministère de l'Éducation et de l'Enseignement supérieur – recreation and sports component – of 3 May 2017, you mentioned that you would soon have the full picture to be able to issue an order on certain sports and to reflect on the possibility of extending it to other sports. Since no such announcement has been made since then, when will be able to pass an order on prize fights and those officially designated by organizations?
