Bill 174

An Act mainly to relax the parental insurance plan in order to promote better family-work balance

Introduction

Introduced by
Mr. François Blais
Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity
EXPLANATORY NOTES

This bill amends the Act respecting parental insurance to relax the parameters of the parental insurance plan.

To that end, the bill extends the period within which maternity, paternity, parental or adoption benefits can be paid.

The number of weeks of maternity benefits in the event of a multiple pregnancy is increased and additional weeks of adoption benefits exclusive to each adoptive parent are granted.

Under the bill, weeks of shareable parental or adoption benefits can be replaced by daily parental responsibility benefits.

The bill establishes that, in the event of the child’s death, the parents are granted an additional period before benefits end.

The bill further amends the Act respecting parental insurance, in particular to allow exceptions to be prescribed by regulation for establishing the average weekly earnings used for benefit calculation.

Lastly, the bill proposes certain consequential amendments to the Act respecting labour standards.

LEGISLATION AMENDED BY THIS BILL:

– Act respecting parental insurance (chapter A-29.011);
– Act respecting labour standards (chapter N-1.1).
