7 May 2019

Moment of reflection

The President informed the Assembly that he had, within the prescribed time, received a request for an urgent debate from Mr. Nadeau-Dubois, House Leader of the Second Opposition Group. This request concerns the exceptionally high spring flooding that has been affecting Québec for several days.

RULING FROM THE CHAIR

To be receivable, a request for an urgent debate must concern a specific, important matter that falls under the Assembly's jurisdiction and that concerns a sudden, acute crisis or the worsening of such a crisis. The Chair must also take into consideration whether the matter has been discussed in other circumstances and whether there will be upcoming opportunities to do so.

The request now before the Chair for an urgent debate does concern a specific, important matter that falls under the Assembly's jurisdiction. Moreover, the spring flooding, which has lasted for about two weeks, constitutes a serious crisis.

If, at the start of the flooding, a request for an urgent debate had been made, it would not have been possible to hold it because the week of 22 to 26 April was allotted for work in the ridings, and because last week there were no Orders of the Day, as the Assembly was in the process of completing its examination of the estimates of expenditure. However, had the Assembly been sitting and had it not been during the budget estimate examination period, such a request for an urgent debate would have been admissible, given the importance of the issue.

The Assembly did touch on the subject a few times last week, including during a motion without notice moved on 30 April 2019. The motion proposed, in particular, that the Assembly express its far-reaching solidarity with and support for all those affected by the consequences of spring flooding, and that it thank all those who came to the flood victims' assistance. After a few brief interventions, the motion was adopted unanimously.

That motion shows parliamentarians' marked interest in this issue since the flooding began. Furthermore, given that Quebecers are entitled to expect a reaction from parliamentarians, the Chair considers that Members must be allowed to express their views on this subject, in particular to address their flood-beleaguered citizens.

Given that this is the first opportunity on which an urgent debate on this matter can be held, that historic flooding levels in 2019 do indeed constitute a significant crisis justifying the interruption of legislative proceedings and that the effects of this natural disaster that is still affecting thousands of citizens are not yet resolved, the Chair declares that the request for an urgent debate is receivable. A limited debate on the urgent debate may therefore be held once the Assembly has concluded its examination of the estimates of expenditure for the National Assembly, as that has priority status.

Introduction of Bills

The President communicated to the Assembly, and then tabled, the Law Clerk's report on the following private bill:

200 An Act respecting certain immovables situated on a mining concession of the cadastre of Canton de Bourlamaque, registration division of Abitibi

The report states that the notice was drafted and published in accordance with the Rules for the Conduct of Proceedings governing private bills.

(Sessional Paper No. 564-20190507)

Mrs. Blais (Abitibi-Ouest) moved that leave be granted to introduce Private Bill 200, An Act respecting certain immovables situated on a mining concession of the cadastre of Canton de Bourlamaque, registration division of Abitibi.

The motion was carried.
