Bill 497

An Act to amend the Charter of human rights and freedoms in order to strengthen the protection of seniors’ rights and create the office of Seniors Ombudsperson

Introduction

Introduced by
Mr. Harold LeBel
Member for Rimouski
EXPLANATORY NOTES

This bill amends the Charter of human rights and freedoms in order to strengthen the protection granted to seniors.

To that end, the protection provided against the exploitation of seniors and handicapped people is extended to include protection against any form of maltreatment.

The bill creates the office of Seniors Ombudsperson, which is held by a vice-president of the Commission des droits de la personne et des droits de la jeunesse dedicated exclusively to promoting seniors’ rights and respect for those rights. The bill also amends the composition of the Commission by increasing the number of its members. It provides that two of the Commission’s members are to be chosen from among persons capable of making a notable contribution to the examination and resolution of problems relating to the protection of seniors’ rights and adds one more vice-president position.

The bill also enshrines the confidential nature of information disclosed when a complaint is filed with the Commission. Consequently, it provides immunity from prosecution for anyone who files a complaint with the Commission in good faith and for anyone who cooperates in the examination of such a complaint.

Lastly, the bill prescribes sanctions for anyone who attempts to take or takes reprisals against a person, group or organization having an interest in the handling of a complaint filed with the Commission.

LEGISLATION AMENDED BY THIS BILL:

– Act respecting equal access to employment in public bodies (chapter A-2.01);
– Charter of human rights and freedoms (chapter C-12).
REGULATIONS AMENDED BY THIS BILL:

– Code of ethics of the members of the Human Rights Tribunal (chapter C-12, r. 1);
