Moment of reflection

The President informed the Assembly that he had, within the prescribed time, received a request for an urgent debate from Mr. Fortin, Official Opposition House Leader, with respect to Québec's public health situation, which has alarmingly deteriorated extremely rapidly in the past few days.

RULING FROM THE CHAIR

To determine whether a request for an urgent debate is receivable, the Chair must examine the criteria stipulated in the Standing Orders and in jurisprudence. To be receivable, a request for an urgent debate must concern a specific, important matter that falls under the Assembly's jurisdiction. Furthermore, the object of the debate must concern a sudden, acute crisis or the worsening of such a crisis. The Chair must also take into consideration whether the matter has been discussed in other circumstances and whether there will be upcoming opportunities to do so.

However, before examining these criteria, the Chair must also take into account Standing Order 54, which sets out the order of priority of the debates that may take place during a given sitting. In this regard, Urgent Debates rank second after Business Having Precedence.

In addition, the House undertook the debate on the Budget Speech yesterday, which has priority under paragraph 5 of Standing Order 87. An urgent debate can therefore not be held while the Assembly is seized of a matter of greater priority. Consequently, the Chair is not required to examine the receivability criteria as such, given that no urgent debate may be held while the debate on the Budget Speech is in progress.

Accordingly, the request for an urgent debate is out of order.
