Information on the Proceedings of the Assembly

The President heard arguments from all sides on the point of privilege or contempt raised by Mr. Nadeau-Dubois, House Leader of the Second Opposition Group, on 1 April 2021.

By leave of the Assembly to set aside Standing Orders 53 and 59, Mr. Nadeau-Dubois, House Leader of the Second Opposition Group, tabled the following:

A copy of a Radio-Canada article, dated 1 April 2021, entitled “Qualité de l’air en classe : Roberge n’a jamais eu l’aval de la santé publique”.

(Sessional Paper No. 2474-20210413)

The President took the matter under advisement.

He then informed the Assembly that on Wednesday, 14 April 2021, during Business Standing in the Name of Members in Opposition, a debate would be held on the motion moved by Mr. Tanguay (LaFontaine).

This motion reads as follows:

THAT the National Assembly recognize that Québec is currently experiencing an unprecedented crisis in the number of available spaces its educational childcare services can offer;

THAT it acknowledge that the waiting list has drastically increased, with over 51,000 children from across Québec now waiting for a space;

THAT it emphasize that the difficulty of obtaining a childcare space leads parents, mainly women, to make the tough choice of taking unpaid leave;

THAT it recognize that this crisis in childcare spaces accentuates the inequity gap between women and men;

13 April 2021

THAT it note that many essential service jobs are female-dominated professions and that Québec depends on the work these woman perform, especially during these pandemic times;

THAT it emphasize that it is almost exclusively women who hold early childcare educator positions and that the childcare service network currently needs several thousand more qualified educators in order for it to be able to operate properly;

THAT it recall that recent negotiations with the providers of home educational services were arduous and resulted in several closures of these childcare facilities;

THAT it acknowledge that the CAQ government's third budget does not contain a plan nor the sums necessary to get Québec families out of this childcare space predicament;

THAT it demand that the CAQ government recognize the gravity of this childcare space crisis;

THAT, lastly, it demand that the CAQ government mobilize all government departments and agencies in order to implement an emergency plan as quickly as possible.

At the end of her address, Ms. Massé, Leader of the Second Opposition Group, moved the following motion stating a grievance:

THAT the National Assembly censure the CAQ government for its "Québec is Resilient and Confident" 2021–2022 budget, due to its lack of ambition when it comes to the economic and ecological transition, and for promising a resilient Québec society but does not provide the measures necessary to attain this and also fails to acknowledge the inadequate level of preparedness of our industries, cities, institutions and communities for the inevitable impacts of climate change.

- the significant increase in the number of children waiting for a space in an educational childcare service;
- the decline, for a third consecutive year, in investments provided for in the Québec Infrastructure Plan to ensure the development of new subsidized childcare spaces;
- the fact that many parents are now forced to delay returning to the workforce due to lack of access to a childcare space for their child;
- the lack of means, vision and proactivity to deal with the unprecedented shortage of educators and the serious lack of spaces in educational childcare services.
