EXPLANATORY NOTES

The Act respecting the conditions of employment and the pension plan of the Members of the National Assembly is amended in order to eliminate the transition allowance granted to Members who resign during their term of office. Exceptionally, a Member who has resigned may receive the allowance if the Office of the National Assembly is of the opinion that health reasons or family reasons prevent the Member from carrying out the duties of office. Before rendering its decision, the Office must obtain the advisory opinion of the Ethics Commissioner.

LEGISLATION AMENDED BY THIS BILL:

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Section 12 of the Act respecting the conditions of employment and the pension plan of the Members of the National Assembly (chapter C-52.1) is replaced by the following sections:

“12. A Member who is defeated in an election or who serves out his term as a Member but is not a candidate in the next election is entitled to a transition allowance.

The Office must specify in its decision whether the advisory opinion of the Ethics Commissioner is favourable or unfavourable with regard to granting a transition allowance.

For the purposes of the advisory opinion, the Ethics Commissioner shall conduct inquiries in private and with due dispatch.
