Sections 5.01, 5.02, 5.03, 5.3 and 5.4

AMENDMENT:

(1) Insert the following after section 5:

CIVIL CODE OF QUÉBEC

5.01 Article 2905 of the Civil Code of Québec is amended by replacing the second paragraph by the following paragraph:

“Nor does it run against a minor or a person of full age under curatorship or tutorship with respect to remedies they may have against their representative or against the person entrusted with their custody, or with respect to remedies they may have against any person for bodily injury resulting from an act which could constitute a criminal offence.”

5.02. The Code is amended by inserting the following article after article 2926:

“2926.1. An action in damages for bodily injury resulting from an act which could constitute a criminal offence is prescribed by 10 years from the date the victim becomes aware that the injury suffered is attributable to that act. However, the prescriptive period is 20 years if the injury results from a sexual aggression, violent behaviour suffered during childhood, or the violent behaviour of a spouse or former spouse.

If the victim or the author of the act dies, the prescriptive period, if not already expired, is reduced to three years and runs from the date of death.”

5.03. Article 2930 of the Code is replaced by the following article:

“2930. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, where an action is based on the obligation to make reparation for bodily injury caused to another, the requirement that notice be given prior to bringing the action or that the action be instituted within a period of less than 3 years, 10 years or 20 years, as the case may be, cannot affect a prescriptive period provided for in this Book.”

(2) Insert the following after section 5.2:

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

5.3. Suspension of prescription provided for in article 2905 of the Civil Code of Québec, enacted by section 5.01, applies to existing juridical situations only as of the coming into force of section 5.01.

5.4. The prescriptive periods provided for in article 2926.1 of the Civil Code of Québec, enacted by section 5.02, apply to existing juridical situations taking into account the time already elapsed.

The provisions of article 2926.1 of the Civil Code concerning the starting point of prescriptive periods are declaratory.
