Part 5

WRITTEN QUESTIONS

Questions already placed on the Order Paper are published each Wednesday

(53) Mr. Caire (La Peltrie) – 17 March 2015

To the Minister of Education, Higher Education and Research

According to the Auditor General of Québec, for the fiscal year ended on 30 April 2014, the Université du Québec à Montréal (UQAM) violated Bill 100, An Act to implement certain provisions of the Budget Speech of 30 March 2010, reduce the debt and return to a balanced budget in 2013-2014.

The UQAM granted 85 executives $352,767 in lump sum settlements in addition to the maximum salary provided for in the Act. The department had then informed the UQAM that it had to comply with the Act, failing which it risked a subsidy reduction.

The UQAM has always denied having violated the Act in spite of the department's warning. Has the Minister of Education taken steps to recover the UQAM's overpayments?

(62) Mr. Lisée (Rosemont) – 23 April 2015

To the Minister for Rehabilitation, Youth Protection and Public Health

In 2014-2015, how much money was spent on services for persons with trisomy 21 and their families?

Breakdown by region.

How much money will be set aside for these same services in 2015-2016?

What new measures have been undertaken in 2014-2015 to follow up on the recommendation made by the Health and Welfare Commissioner in his 2009 report aiming to more effectively meet the needs and give better support to persons with trisomy 21 and their families?

What is the Minister's plan and timetable to improve, during her mandate, services to persons with trisomy 21 and their families?

Five years after its announcement, is the first report on the introduction and application of the Trisomy 21 Prenatal Screening Program of Québec being drawn up? If so, when will it be made public?

Is the department continuing to monitor the issue?

(63) Mr. Gaudreault (Jonquière) – 5 May 2015

To the Minister responsible for Access to Information and the Reform of Democratic Institutions

On 29 May 2014, the Minister responsible for Access to Information and the Reform of Democratic Institutions announced the creation, within his secretariat, of a team tasked with enhancing the protection of electors' personal information; this decision followed Le Devoir newspaper's disclosures concerning breaches in the protection of personal data linked to the electoral list.

The Minister had asked his department to propose solutions to protect electors' confidential information.

- Would the Minister provide us with the detailed composition of this team?
- Would he specify the number of meetings held in relation to this mandate since 29 May 2014 and, for each one, indicate the date, location, purpose, agenda, and provide the list of persons present?
- Will he commit to tabling in the National Assembly all of the recommendations made by this team?

(64) Mr. Jolin-Barrette (Borduas) – 7 May 2015

To the Minister of Immigration, Diversity and Inclusiveness

In his ruling of 31 March 2015, the Honourable Kirkland Casgrain of the Superior Court raised the fact that over 50,000 immigration applicants, as skilled workers, are affected by the regulatory amendment that, on 1 August 2013, raised the level of language competence required to obtain points in the selection grid.

According to the ruling, the applicant, Ms. Tatiana Stasenko, had very little chance of qualifying at immigration if the new regulation were to apply retroactively. The judge therefore decided that the retroactive provision must not apply and that the regulation that applied in April 2013, that is, at the time of her request, would apply.

Following this ruling, we would like to know the number of applicants who were affected by this regulatory amendment and who consequently were unable to obtain a Certificat de sélection du Québec (CSQ – Québec selection certificate) owing to its retroactive application.

We would also like to know the number of applicants whose file will be re-evaluated pursuant to this ruling, so that they may potentially obtain a CSQ.

Lastly, we would like to know the number of nationals affected thereby who asked that the department reimburse the $910 fees charged as part of their application, as well as the number of applicants who were or will be reimbursed.

- (65) Mr. Schneeberger (Drummond–Bois-Francis) – 12 May 2015
To the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food

The Minister of Agriculture is reviewing his department's ways of doing things with a view to simplifying procedures. We hope that such changes will make life easier for the next generation of farmers.

In view of this review, is the Minister also open to reviewing the number of permits required to operate an agritourism business? Does he intend to simplify a regulation that all too often represents an obstacle to those who would like to start an agritourism business?

- (66) Mr. Surprenant (Groulx) – 13 May 2015
To the Minister of Transport

The Sécor-KPMG report submitted to the Secrétariat du Conseil du trésor in June 2013 dealt with contract management of additional expenditures associated with construction and services contracts of some of Québec's public agencies, including the Ministère des Transports. The contracts and additional expenditures analyzed were those for the period from 1 April 2010 to 31 March 2013.

We learned that the number of contracts with cost overruns of more than 10 % increased over the entire period analyzed as regards the Ministère des Transports and that a significant portion of these is linked to factors other than unforeseen circumstances on the worksite. The report adds that factors justifying these cost overruns represented 60 % of the value of the additional expenses analyzed and led to preventable contract amendments linked to weaknesses in work planning and design, among other things.

Has the department analyzed the additional expenditures since 31 March 2013 to compare and monitor their progress? What is the proportion, for 2013-2014 and 2014-2015, of preventable contract amendments such as defined in the Sécor-KPMG report?

- (67) Mr. Surprenant (Groulx) – 13 May 2015
To the Minister of Transport

In November 2013, the municipality of Ormstown asked the Ministère des Transports to put up a stop sign on its territory, at an intersection that was considered dangerous, the junction of Highway 138 and Roy Street.

The department refused to put up a stop sign at this intersection. Approximately two weeks later, on 29 November 2013, an accident that occurred at this intersection caused the death of a two-month-old child. The coroner's report released yesterday concludes that this intersection must be redesigned to make it safer.

The Ministère des Transports refused to answer questions linked to its refusal to put up a stop sign at this intersection. Can the Minister of Transport tell us the precise reasons justifying his department's decision to refuse the municipality's request to put up a stop sign at this intersection? Did the department consider that this intersection was dangerous?

- (68) Mr. Schneeberger (Drummond-Bois-Francis) – 13 May 2015
To the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food

It is well known that for many years profits from the sale of Québec products at the Société des alcools du Québec (SAQ) have differed. Indeed, Québec ciders sold by the Crown corporation receive higher royalties than Québec wines.

During the consideration of the estimates of expenditure of the Ministère de l'Agriculture, des Pêcheries et de l'Alimentation, the Minister informed us that he was aware of the situation. When we asked him the reason for this difference, he told us, without going out on a limb, that historical issues account for this situation. We were also given a document to attempt to further our understanding thereof.

However, numbers dating back to 2002 lead us to believe that cider and wine royalties were equivalent. This is why I am asking the Minister to clarify the reasons that led to this difference in percentage between ciders and wines. Furthermore, can the Minister tell us what he intends to do address this inequality?
