WRITTEN QUESTIONS

- (197) Mrs. Massé (Sainte-Marie–Saint-Jacques) – 6 October 2016
To the Minister responsible for the Status of Women

The sexual assault action plan expired in 2013. Over a year later, the Member for Gatineau, then Minister responsible for the Status of Women, announced that the plan would be extended for an additional year in order to hold consultations within the framework of a parliamentary committee and a non-partisan forum. She was then to propose a 2016-2021 action plan.

Time has passed and we are still waiting for this plan. Moreover, the action plan "Pour que l'égalité de droit devienne une égalité de fait", a general equality plan, also expired in 2015. The results of this plan containing a multitude of measures, including the sexual assault action plan, have not yet been assessed.

In light of the elements brought to the attention of the Minister responsible for the Status of Women, we would like her to answer the following questions:

1. Can the Minister guarantee that the sexual assault plan, which we have been waiting for for over two years in a most demanding context, will arrive in fall 2016?
2. Does the Minister intend to have a transparent process in assessing the Pour l'égalité program, which process would quickly lead to an action plan?
3. Does the Minister intend to establish a rigorous assessment and development process of her action plans to prevent such occurrences in the future?
4. Can the Minister tell us who will go in the schools to educate on the prevention of sexual exploitation by talking to our young people about the recruitment cycle, consent and healthy and equal relationships if no program supports groups that have the expertise to do so? If the fight against sexual violence is indeed a priority, would the Minister commit to working together with her public security and health colleagues to develop an effective program and action plans?
