Section 1.2

AMENDMENT:

Insert after section 1.1, introduced by amendment:

1.2. The Act is amended by inserting the following section before section 117:

“116.1. A police officer who holds a managerial position must attend exclusively to the duties of his or her function. He or she may not hold any other function, office or employment or engage in activities enabling him or her to receive other income from property or a business unless so authorized by the director of the police force. He or she may however engage in teaching activities for which he or she may be remunerated or in activities for which he or she is not remunerated within non-profit organizations.

Any contravention of the first paragraph shall entail the immediate suspension without pay of the police officer concerned. The police officer's situation must be regularized within six months, on pain of dismissal.

This provision does not apply to police officers to which section 3.0.1 of the Act respecting the Ministère du Conseil exécutif (chapter M-30) applies.”

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "C. Paquette", is written over the bottom right portion of the text. The signature is stylized and slanted.
