- (266) Mr. Schneeberger (Drummond–Bois-Francis) – 17 October 2017
To the Minister of Education, Recreation and Sports

In 2013, the federal government modified section 83 of the Criminal Code R.S.C. (1985), c. C-46 to prohibit "prize fights", unless the sport is recognized by the International Olympic Committee or is held with the permission or under the authority of an athletic board, commission or similar body established by or under the authority of the province's legislature. However, the Government of Québec still has not addressed the legality of prize fights and those officially designated by organizations.

Last spring, several amateur combat sport competitions had to be cancelled owing to complaints received by police services.

During the consideration of the estimates of expenditure of the Ministère de l'Éducation et de l'Enseignement supérieur – recreation and sports component – of 3 May 2017, you mentioned that you would soon have the full picture to be able to issue an order on certain sports and to reflect on the possibility of extending it to other sports. Since no such announcement has been made since then, when will be able to pass an order on prize fights and those officially designated by organizations?

(268) Mrs. Roy (Montarville) – 19 October 2017
To the Minister of Immigration, Diversity and Inclusiveness

Last 21 August, our parliamentary team sent the Ministère de l'Immigration, de la Diversité et de l'Inclusion a request for information concerning:

1. The budget for the reception of asylum seekers who crossed the Canada-U.S. border, at the Saint-Bernard-de-Lacolle border crossing, at Roxham Road or at any other crossing, broken down by expenditure item, from 2013 to 2016, as well as from 1 January to 21 August 2017;
2. Expenditures for the reception of asylum seekers who crossed the Canada-U.S. border, at the Saint-Bernard-de-Lacolle border crossing, at Roxham Road or at any other crossing, from 2013 to 2016, as well as from 1 January to 21 August 2017, broken down according to the following types of expenses: francization, adult education, school attendance, health network, childcare services, last-resort financial assistance, temporary accommodation, permanent accommodation, other types of expenses.

Last 15 September, the MIDI provided no specific reply to what had been requested. In its reply, the MIDI mentioned general numbers, taken from the 2016-2017 estimates of expenditure, while the subject of the request for information specifically concerned this past summer's migrant crisis at the Canada-U.S. border.

Last 21 September, we had a telephone conversation with a person in charge of access to documents and the protection of personal information at the Ministère de l'Immigration, de la Diversité et de l'Inclusion, who told us that the numbers regarding the reception of asylum seekers who arrived this past summer would only be available at the next consideration of the estimates of expenditure, in April 2018. This reply seems inconceivable and totally unacceptable to me.

The Premier of Québec stated during his Opening Speech of the Session, on 21 May 2014, that he wanted his Government to be the first truly open government in Québec's history.

I therefore call upon the Minister of Immigration, Diversity and Inclusiveness to show real transparency by providing me with the following information:

1. The budget for the reception of asylum seekers who crossed the Canada-U.S. border, at the Saint-Bernard-de-Lacolle border crossing, at Roxham Road or at any other crossing, broken down by expenditure item:
 - a. From 2013 to 2016
 - b. From 1 January to 30 September 2017

2. Expenditures for the reception of asylum seekers who crossed the Canada-U.S. border, at the Saint-Bernard-de-Lacolle border crossing, at Roxham Road or at any other crossing:
 - a. From 2013 to 2016
 - b. From 1 January to 30 September 2017
 broken down according to the following types of expenses: francization, adult education, school attendance, health network, childcare services, last-resort financial assistance, temporary accommodation, permanent accommodation, other types of expenses.

3. Please also provide the total number of asylum claims made in Québec for the months of August and September.

(269) Mr. Caire (La Peltrie) – 25 October 2017
 To the Chair of the Conseil du trésor

In February 2011, the Government of Québec launched construction work on the new Centre hospitalier de l'Université de Montréal (CHUM) in a public-private partnership (PPP). Construction Santé Montréal (CSM) was awarded the contract. CSM consists of two European companies, Laing O'Rourke and OBRASCON HUARTE LAIN (OHL), which act as project managers. The consortium has brought in numerous subcontractors to carry out the work.

The Government took possession of the building with a one-year delay on 31 March 2017. Last June, the Government began paying rent to CSM, which came to over $13 million that month. As at 1 September 2017, there are between $90 and $250 million in legal hypothecs registered by subcontractors who have yet to be paid.

Why didn't the Government require payment receipts from the Québec subcontractors before making payments to CSM?

(272) Mrs. D'Amours (Mirabel) – 26 October 2017
To the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food

Next month, the fifth round of negotiations on the renewal of the North American Free-Trade Agreement (NAFTA) will be held in Mexico City.

This new round of negotiations will bring about difficult challenges for Québec and Canada, given the United States' latest requirements regarding agriculture.

It is worth noting that the United States officially asked for the end of the supply management system for the dairy, egg and poultry industries.

Dairy production being a key sector of our agriculture, as well as of our agrifood industry, supply management must under no circumstances be sacrificed.

Furthermore, it should be noted that the dairy industry will already be having to deal with the effects of the Comprehensive Economic and Trade Agreement (CETA), particularly with regard to the support policies adopted by the federal government, for both production and processing.

In fact, we ask that the Government spare no effort to promote and defend the supply management system.

However, I would like the Minister of Agriculture to unveil his objectives for the fifth round of NAFTA negotiations in Mexico City.

I would also like him to explain how he intends to carry out his objectives and how he intends to influence Canada's requests in Mexico City.

Finally, I would like him to tell us if he will be going to Mexico City in person to participate in the Canadian delegation's activities.

(275) Mr. Nadeau-Dubois (Gouin) – 16 November 2017
To the Minister of Justice

The Commission des droits de la personne et des droits de la jeunesse carries out work that is undeniably important for Québec, work that has enabled major progress in the right to equality for all. Within the context of the crisis that is currently shaking the Commission, it is important to strongly defend its achievements and the relevance of its mandates, while ensuring that it has the resources needed to carry them out.

At the current time, Mr. Picard, the Commission's interim president, is still alone to hold the high offices that normally are held by three persons. Despite the motion that was unanimously carried by the National Assembly last 2 November, inviting the Government to submit a candidacy for the position of Vice-President, responsible for the Charter mandate, nothing has changed yet. Furthermore, a number of in-house chairs are still empty, while the Public Protector's inquiry continues and employees claiming to be harassed fear the return of Mrs. Thermitus. Certain commissioners and numerous community organizations deplore the loss of the relationship of trust with the presidency and the fact that they no longer are consulted on important issues, when this used to be common practice. Moreover, since the Minister asked an "expert", Mrs. Lise Verreault, to analyze the "[Translation] various elements concerning governance, deadline management, mobilization of personnel and communication" (L'Actualité, 27 October 2017), the community has great concerns with regard to preserving the Commission's institutional independence. Lastly, many stakeholders stress that the current crisis is hiding another, deeper one, that concerns its financial capacity.

In light of these elements, we would like to ask the Minister of Justice the following questions:

1. When will the Government submit to the Assembly a candidacy for the position of Vice-President (Charter mandate) of the Commission des droits de la personne et des droits de la jeunesse, as requested in the motion carried unanimously by the National Assembly on 2 November?
2. What is the precise mandate given to Mrs. Lise Verreault as a "consultant"? Will Mrs. Verreault's report be released? Will the employees who claim to have been intimidated have the opportunity to meet Mrs. Verreault to present their version of the facts?
3. How will the Commission des droits de la personne et des droits de la jeunesse's independence be ensured within the framework of the "organizational diagnosis" process that is in place?
4. How does the Minister intend to help rebuild the relationship of trust between the CDPDJ presidency and the community organizations?

(276) Mrs. Samson (Iberville) – 21 November 2017
To the Minister of Health and Social Services

The reimbursement of expenses related to the use of a guide dog by persons with a visual impairment has been covered by the Régie de l'assurance maladie du Québec's Visual Devices Program since 1996.

When the regulation was adopted in 1996, this amount was established at $561 and was increased to $761 in 1998.

From 1998 to 2004, the amount remained at $761. In 2004, it was increased to $1,028. The AETMIS report notes that on 1 June 2004, following a full review of the RAMQ's Visual Devices Program undertaken in 2001 and concluded in 2003, the MSSS increased the annual allowance from $761 to $1,028 to reflect the economic reality.

In short, the amount of this program's financial aid has not been adjusted in over 13 years.

Considering the increase in the cost of living since 2004 and that the Government has already enhanced this program twice since its implementation in 1996, does the Government intend to increase this amount soon? If so, by how much? If not, why not?

(277) Mr. Charette (Deux-Montagnes) – 21 November 2017
To the Minister of Transport, Sustainable Mobility and Transport Electrification

I am writing to you to inform you of a situation brought to my attention by my colleague, the Member for Montarville, concerning a business in her riding.

This year, the business Transport Racicot et fils inc. found out that it could no longer circulate with its tool vehicles during the thaw period, for the purpose of carrying out its snow removal contracts.

After the Société d'assurance automobile du Québec informed them that they could apply for special permits during the thaw period, the business ultimately was not eligible therefor, since it doesn't carry out snow removal for a public entity.

As a result, the business is unable to use its tool vehicles during the entire thaw period, which forces it to cease its activities and lay its workers off for the season.

It appears that this is not unusual and that several businesses in this sector face the same problems.

It is reported that tool vehicles have greatly evolved since the provisions concerning the thaw period were adopted and complicate snow removal business activities during this period.

Since several specific permit requests for the thaw period were sent to the Ministère des Transports, can you tell us what measures and course of action the Ministère intends to take to address this problem?

(278) Mrs. Fournier (Marie-Victorin) – 21 November 2017

To the Minister of Transport, Sustainable Mobility and Transport Electrification

Questioned on 28 September 2017 with regard to abusive recovery fees applied by Concession A-25 to users of the toll bridge on Highway A-25, the former Minister of Transport stated, during Oral Question Period, that the Consumer Protection Act did not apply to Concession A-25:

"[Translation] In regard to the fact: Is it or isn't it subject to the Consumer Protection Act? There is every indication that it isn't subject thereto."

My questions are the following:

1. Can the new Minister of Transport explain why Concession A-25 is not subject to the Consumer Protection Act?
2. What actions does he intend to take to make Concession A-25 subject to the Consumer Protection Act and to ensure that it complies with its provisions?

(279) Mr. Turcotte (Saint-Jean) – 22 November 2017

To the Minister for Rehabilitation, Youth Protection, Public Health and Healthy Living

Last 21 September, I tabled in the National Assembly the petition "Rehaussement du budget octroyé en déficience intellectuelle" signed by more than 4,285 petitioners. For this occasion, over 50 parents accompanied by 20 babies and children from 9 administrative regions throughout Québec travelled to the National Assembly. In your reply to this petition, you mention that "[Translation] persons with intellectual disabilities (ID) and autism spectrum disorders (ASD) get support in the health and social services network and a service provision that is adapted to their needs". Furthermore, you specified "[Translation] that current expenses for the (ID) and (ASD) program amount to more than $1 billion".

- Of the amount in your reply to the petition, what is the percentage used for intellectual disabilities services?
- How many individuals living with an intellectual disability are served by the CRDI-TEDs?
- How many individuals living with an autism spectrum disorder are served by the CRDI-TEDs?
- How many individuals are on a waiting list to receive intellectual disability services?
- How many intellectual disability intervention plans were completed in the past year?

(280) Mr. LeBel (Rimouski) – 23 November 2017

To the Minister for Transport

The people of the Bas-Saint-Laurent region have long been waiting for the Highway 20 connection between Notre-Dame-des-Neiges and Rimouski. This major road project was flippantly removed from the Québec Infrastructure Plan three years ago. Currently, the significant number of cars that use Route 132 on this part of the territory causes congestion and lead to dangerous passing manoeuvres. It isn't normal that a city like Rimouski is not connected to a highway that is worthy of the name.

My question is the following:

Can the Minister commit to ensuring that the amounts required for the extension of Highway 20 will be included in the 2018-2019 Québec Infrastructure Plan?

(281) Mr. Lemay (Masson) – 23 November 2017
To the Minister of Finance

Organizations in my riding as well as in the region have contacted me about Loto-Québec's new business model for the management and distribution of its kiosks, particularly in shopping centres. It is a well-known fact that the vast majority of these kiosks have been managed by various not-for-profit organizations for several years. However, in 2018, Loto-Québec will no longer distribute individual kiosks, as it has always done, but rather will distribute a network of kiosks over a more or less extended region and potentially divided according to profitability zone.

This new structure, whose ultimate goal appears to be based on Loto-Québec's profitability, greatly penalizes the NPOs that until now managed these kiosks. First, several no longer qualify under the government corporation's criteria and are thus eliminated de facto from the process. Second, those who still qualify don't all benefit from the resources and management mode that is required to operate several kiosks, which, as mentioned previously, are sometimes very far from each other within the same network. It therefore becomes particularly difficult for them to adhere to this new business model that doesn't suit their needs. In both cases, these NPOs are forced to abandon what is often the main source of income allowing them to carry out their activities.

In addition, the organizations whose contracts are about to expire and won't be renewed are left to their own devices and remain in a state of uncertainty since Loto-Québec has delayed providing clear answers as regards transfer terms and conditions, though they have obligations, particularly regarding layoffs and transference to the new managers.

As Minister to whom Loto-Québec reports, can you tell us what Loto-Québec's new terms and conditions are so as not to penalize the organizations that manage these kiosks? The continuity of these organizations is at stake with this structure modification. These organizations are entitled to get clear answers regarding transfer terms and conditions, and they deserve to know why they no longer qualify, when some organizations had been managing these kiosks for over 10 years.
