Business Standing in the Name of Members in Opposition

Mr. Paradis (Lévis) moved:

THAT the National Assembly recognize that, according to data published by the Canadian Institute for Health Information, the average remuneration of Québec's medical specialists has exceeded that of their Canadian counterparts since 2014–2015;

THAT it also acknowledge the Health Minister's remarks of 15 February 2018 to the effect that Québec's medical specialists now earn more than Ontario's;

THAT it recognize that Quebecers will pay medical specialists more than necessary and that it therefore ask the Québec Government not to sign the new agreement with the medical specialists before the next general election in 2018.

Mr. Gendron, Third Vice-President, informed the Assembly of the allocation of speaking time for the proceedings with respect to this limited debate: 10 minutes to the mover of the motion for his reply; approximately 50 minutes to the parliamentary group forming the Government; approximately 28 minutes 34 seconds to the parliamentary group forming the Official Opposition; approximately 21 minutes 26 seconds to the Second Opposition Group; and 10 minutes to the independent Members, subject to a maximum, based on the number of Members who indicated their intention to speak, of 2 minutes each for the Member for Gaspé, the Member for Groulx and the Member for Vachon, and 6 minutes to the three Members of Québec solidaire. Within this framework, any time not used by the independent Members or by a parliamentary group shall be redistributed among the parliamentary groups in the proportions established above. Lastly, individual addresses shall not be limited.

14 March 2018

A debate arose thereon.

At the end of her speech, Mrs. Lamarre (Taillon) moved:

THAT the motion moved by the Member for Lévis be amended as follows:

By adding the following paragraph after the third paragraph: “THAT it request that the Government freeze medical specialists’ remuneration.”

The motion, as amended, would read as follows:

THAT the National Assembly recognize that, according to data published by the Canadian Institute for Health Information, the average remuneration of Québec’s medical specialists has exceeded that of their Canadian counterparts since 2014–2015;

THAT it also acknowledge the Health Minister’s remarks of 15 February 2018 to the effect that Québec’s medical specialists now earn more than Ontario’s;

THAT it recognize that Quebecers will pay medical specialists more than necessary and that it therefore ask the Québec Government not to sign the new agreement with the medical specialists before the next general election in 2018;

THAT it request that the Government freeze medical specialists’ remuneration.

The debate continued on the main motion moved by Mr. Paradis (Lévis) and on the amendment motion moved by Mrs. Lamarre (Taillon), subject to the permission of its author.

14 March 2018

---

At the end of his address, Mr. Khadir (Mercier) moved:

THAT the motion moved by the Member for Lévis be amended as follows:

By replacing “not to sign the” in the last paragraph by “to sign a”;

By adding “, reducing their remuneration to the same level as that of Ontario,” after “with the medical specialists” in the last paragraph.

The motion, as amended, would read as follows:

THAT the National Assembly recognize that, according to data published by the Canadian Institute for Health Information, the average remuneration of Québec’s medical specialists has exceeded that of their Canadian counterparts since 2014–2015;

THAT it also acknowledge the Health Minister’s remarks of 15 February 2018 to the effect that Québec’s medical specialists now earn more than Ontario’s;

THAT it recognize that Quebecers will pay medical specialists more than necessary and that it therefore ask the Québec Government to sign a new agreement with the medical specialists, reducing their remuneration to the same level as that of Ontario, before the next general election in 2018.

The debate continued on the main motion moved by Mr. Paradis (Lévis) and on the amendment motions moved by Mrs. Lamarre (Taillon) and Mr. Khadir (Mercier), subject to the permission of its author.

Pursuant to Standing Order 98.1, Mr. Paradis (Lévis) refused the amendments proposed by Mrs. Lamarre (Taillon) and Mr. Khadir (Mercier).

14 March 2018

---

After debate thereon, the question was put on the motion, and a recorded division was thereupon demanded.

The motion was negated on the following vote:

(Division No. 429 in Appendix)

Yeas: 45 Nays: 60 Abstentions: 0

Government Bills

Report Stage

The Assembly took into consideration the report from the Committee on Public Finance on its clause-by-clause consideration of Bill 163, An Act respecting the implementation of recommendations of the pension committee of certain public sector pension plans and amending various legislative provisions.
