The proceedings resumed at 5.37 o'clock p.m.

---

Ms. Soucy, Second Vice-President, ruled on the receivability of the motion to divide moved by Mr. Polo (Laval-des-Rapides).

13 February 2020

RULING FROM THE CHAIR

Parliamentary jurisprudence has recognized that, for a motion to divide to be declared receivable, a bill must contain more than one principle and each bill resulting from the division must be coherent, complete and able to stand alone.

The Chair has also mentioned on numerous occasions that analysis of a motion to divide's receivability should not be based on the bill's author's purpose, but should consider the bill's provisions to determine whether the bill contains more than one principle.

In light of these criteria, and having read and analyzed the bill's provisions, the Chair has ascertained the existence of more than one principle in the bill. It is not because principles may be grouped under a single theme that they are to be considered simply terms of a broader principle.

Once it has been determined that a bill contains more than one principle, the Chair must determine if the way the sections are divided among the different bills resulting from the division generates separate bills that are coherent and can be considered independently.

The motion to divide proposes that the bill be divided in two bills: the first, a bill to ensure the effective governance of the Green Fund and effectively fight climate change, and the second, a bill to change the governance of the energy transition.

The Chair notes that both bills resulting from the division are coherent, complete and able to stand alone.

Given the aforementioned, the Chair concludes that the motion to divide meets the criteria established by jurisprudence.

Consequently, the motion to divide is declared receivable.

Ms. Soucy, Second Vice-President, informed the Assembly of the allocation of speaking time for this limited debate: 58 minutes 30 seconds to the parliamentary group forming the Government; 34 minutes 51 seconds to the parliamentary group forming the Official Opposition; 12 minutes 27 seconds to the Second Opposition Group; 11 minutes 12 seconds to the Third Opposition Group; and 1 minute 30 seconds to each independent Member. However, if only one independent Member takes part in the debate, that Member's speaking time is 2 minutes. Within this framework, any time not used by the independent Members or by a parliamentary group shall be redistributed among the parliamentary groups in the proportions established above. Lastly, individual addresses shall not be limited.

A debate arose thereon.

The debate was adjourned in the name of Mr. Charette, Minister of the Environment and the Fight Against Climate Change.

By leave of the Assembly to set aside Standing Order 53, the Assembly took Notices of Proceedings in Committees.
