By leave of the Assembly to set aside Standing Order 185, Mr. Julien, Minister of Energy and Natural Resources, together with Mr. LeBel (Rimouski) and Mr. Tardif (Rivière-du-Loup–Témiscouata), moved:

THAT the National Assembly recognize that the development of critical and strategic minerals is an essential catalyst for the energy and technological transition;

THAT it underscore that production, transformation and recycling of critical and strategic minerals provide important economic development opportunities for many of Québec's regions and that these development activities generate a wide range of well-paid jobs, both in the host communities and across the province;

THAT it recognize that Québec's environmental and labour protection laws and regulations make Québec a responsible, ethical leader with regard to the development of its critical and strategic mineral potential;

THAT it mention that in a context where Québec is already Canada's largest consumer of electric cars, the development of critical and strategic minerals would make it possible for Canada to be a key player in the energy storage, battery and telecommunications fields, which will be at the heart of Québec's path toward becoming carbon neutral;

THAT, lastly, it recognize that, given such promising mineral potential, our internationally recognized expertise, our highly competitive renewable energy and our extremely high social and environmental standards, it is absolutely necessary to seize all the opportunities that Québec has to offer.

The question was put on this motion; in accordance with the motion carried by the Assembly on 9 March 2021, a vote was held in accordance with the procedure for recorded divisions.

THAT the National Assembly acknowledge the events that occurred on Friday, 12 March at the CLSC de Joliette, during which Jocelyne Ottawa, an Atikamekw woman, reported having been a victim of racism and unacceptable ridicule while receiving health care;

THAT it strongly condemn racism in all its forms, and especially towards Indigenous persons;

THAT it recognize the role of the Québec State to take action as a leader to build bridges between nations and fight against racism and discrimination;

THAT all Members of the National Assembly apologize to Jocelyne Ottawa, the Atikamekw de Manawan Nation and all Indigenous people for the irreparable consequences of the racism experienced in Québec health and social services institutions;

16 March 2021

THAT the National Assembly recognize the importance of taking the necessary measures so that Indigenous people have access, without discrimination, to all health and social services and that they may, in complete equality, achieve the best possible physical and mental health;

THAT the National Assembly demand that the Government adopt a clear policy direction and commitment to the concept of cultural safety by enshrining it in the Act respecting health services and social services, as recommended by the Viens Commission and approved unanimously by motion of the National Assembly on 7 October 2020;

THAT, to that end, the Government grant the necessary funding and ensure that all institutions in the health and social services network step up their efforts to implement services and programs that meet the principles of cultural safety and are developed for and in collaboration with Indigenous peoples.
