Oral Questions and Answers

The President gave a directive on modifications in the distribution of certain measures and speaking times having become necessary following changes in the composition of the Assembly, which has one additional independent Member.

RULING FROM THE CHAIR

As regards Question Period, the new independent Member will be granted three questions per two 10-sitting cycles. As she came from the parliamentary group forming the Government, her questions will be in substitution for questions from the parliamentary opposition groups according to the same alternation as for the questions granted to Government Members at the beginning of the Legislature.

Thus, the questions she is granted will be in substitution for, in the following order: the eighth question by the Official Opposition, the seventh or eighth question by the Second Opposition Group, the eighth question by the Official Opposition, the seventh or eighth question by the Second Opposition Group and the eighth question by the Official Opposition.

To ensure greater predictability and facilitate the preparation and management of Question Period, before the start of a period of two 10-sitting cycles, the parliamentary group forming the Official Opposition and the Second Opposition Group must notify the new independent Member, as well as the Chair, of the times when the independent Member will be able to ask her questions during this period. The Official Opposition must also send such notices for the questions granted to the independent Member coming from its group.

As regards Statements by Members, the new independent Member will be granted the eighth statement at the eighth sitting of every 10-sitting cycle. To the extent that she does not intend to avail herself of the right to the statement, she must inform the parliamentary group she came from, as well as the Chair, not later than 12:30 p.m. on the day before the sitting during which the statement could be made. The same will apply to a statement by the independent Member coming from the Official Opposition. The parliamentary group thus notified will be able to make use of this statement.

14 March 2023

As regards the allocation of speaking time during limited debates, the new independent Member will be granted the same speaking time as the independent Member coming from the Official Opposition. With the exception of debates on Business Standing in the Name of Members in Opposition, her speaking time will be taken out of the time allocated to the parliamentary group forming the Government, which she came from.

She then tabled the following:

Tables indicating the distribution of measures and allocation of speaking times for Oral Question Period, Statements by Members, limited debates and debates on Business Standing in the Name of Members in Opposition.

(Sessional Paper No. 414-20230314)
