22 March 2023

Motions Without Notice

By leave of the Assembly to set aside Standing Order 185, Mr. Roberge, Minister of the French Language, together with Ms. Setlakwe (Mont-Royal–Outremont), Mr. Zanetti (Jean-Lesage), Mr. Arseneau (Îles-de-la-Madeleine), Ms. Tardif (Laviolette–Saint-Maurice) and Ms. Nichols (Vaudreuil), moved:

THAT the National Assembly mark not only the Journée québécoise de la francophonie canadienne, but also International Francophonie Day;

THAT it recall the leading role Québec plays in the French-speaking world while respecting the diversity of francophone and Acadian communities and other governments;

THAT it reaffirm that it supports the francophone and Acadian communities because of the long history that unites them with the Québec nation and the fact that Québec is the only French-speaking State in North America;

THAT it reiterate that defending the French language in Québec is the responsibility of all generations of Quebecers;

THAT, lastly, it underline the commitment of all Québec government subsectors to promote the French language and the growth of francophone and Acadian communities.

By leave of the Assembly, the motion was carried.

22 March 2023

Ms. McGraw (Notre-Dame-de-Grâce), together with Mr. Nadeau-Dubois, Leader of the Second Opposition Group, Mr. Arseneau (Îles-de-la-Madeleine) and Ms. Nichols (Vaudreuil), moved a motion on the amounts invested in greenhouse gas reduction; this motion could not be debated for want of unanimous consent.

By leave of the Assembly to set aside Standing Order 185, Ms. Labrie (Sherbrooke), together with Mr. Jolin-Barrette, Minister of Justice, Ms. Garceau (Robert-Baldwin), Mr. St-Pierre Plamondon, Leader of the Third Opposition Group, Ms. Tardif (Laviolette–Saint-Maurice) and Ms. Nichols (Vaudreuil), moved:

THAT the National Assembly recognize that domestic violence includes psychological, verbal, physical, sexual and economic abuse;

THAT it underline that domestic violence has significant impacts on its victims;

THAT it underline that the Criminal Code does not make it possible to take into account certain forms of domestic violence and the considerable harm they cause, because no offence includes all aspects of coercive control;

THAT, lastly, the National Assembly ask the federal government to create an expert federal-provincial-territorial working group tasked with making recommendations on the drafting of legislation to add a coercive and controlling behaviour offence in the Criminal Code, as recommended in the report of the House of Commons of Canada's Standing Committee on Justice and Human Rights.

By leave of the Assembly, the motion was carried.

22 March 2023
