WRITTEN QUESTIONS

are published each Wednesday

(208) Mr. Chassin (Saint-Jérôme) – 3 December 2024

To the Minister Responsible for Government Administration and Chair of the Conseil du trésor

The last few years have seen the establishment of a number of public bodies under the current government. However, given the precarious state of our public finances, choices must be made, particularly regarding existing public bodies.

To get an idea of the current situation, can the Minister tell us how many public organizations exist today (including Mobilité Infra Québec and other organizations scheduled to be established)?

Is it possible to know which “public” or “parapublic” bodies are NOT included in the Government’s reporting entity? Is there a comprehensive list of these bodies?

Is the Fondation de la Faune du Québec classified as a public body in the examples or lists provided?

(209) Ms. Cadet (Bourassa-Sauvé) – 3 December 2024

To the Minister of Labour

In a recent article published in the Journal de Montréal, we learned that a number of small and medium-sized business (SMB) owners are experiencing difficulties with parity committees in relation to the Act respecting collective agreement decrees.

Many are denouncing an inequity between regions, where some are subject to a parity committee while others are not, despite being in the same industry.

According to data provided by the Canadian Federation of Independent Business (CFIB), 77% of entrepreneurs stated that the Act increases the administrative and regulatory burden on their business, while 36% reported significant stress in complying with the collective agreements' decrees, and 32% felt that their business was at a disadvantage in comparison with those not subject to the decrees.

CFIB has submitted to the Committee on Labour and the Economy a petition signed by 1,500 people asking the Minister to look into the matter. Can the Minister of Labour tell us how he intends to respond to the 1,500 petitioners?
