WRITTEN QUESTIONS

Questions already placed on the Order Paper are published each Wednesday

(261) Mr. Beauchemin (Marguerite-Bourgeoys) – 20 March 2025
To the Minister of Economy, Innovation and Energy

On 15 January 2025, the Institut du Québec published a study on the consequences of the automation of artificial intelligence on Québec labour entitled “Répercussions de l’automatisation et de l’IA sur la main-d’œuvre au Québec : Quels sont les travailleurs et travailleuses les plus vulnérables?” The study highlighted that 810,000 jobs in Québec across 96 different professions, or 18% of the total workforce, are vulnerable to automation, which is the robotization or application of artificial intelligence (AI).

The study noted that manufacturing and public utility workers are most at risk (up to 59%), in particular professions such as administrative assistants, cashiers, and machine operators. Furthermore, youth aged 15 to 24 and people without a diploma were found to be the most vulnerable groups.

The study provides three potential solutions:

1. Accelerate investments in AI and digital technologies, automate certain tasks, and reallocate employees to higher-value functions;
2. Implement structured monitoring of technological developments and support programs in order to foresee sectoral repercussions and facilitate the adoption of technologies by employees; and
3. Reinforce workforce resilience by developing continuous, accessible training, by experimenting with innovative educational approaches, and by integrating the impact of new technologies in forecasts of labour needs.

What is the Government doing to implement these solutions?

(262) Mr. Beauchemin (Marguerite-Bourgeoys) – 20 March 2025

To the Minister of Economy, Innovation and Energy

According to media reports, senior executives of Azure Power Global, of which the Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec (Caisse) became a majority shareholder in 2020, paid bribes to obtain contracts, which led to legal proceedings in the United States. The Caisse was alerted to several serious ethical breaches as early as 2022, but no concrete action was taken until 2023.

As of 31 December 2023, the Caisse had deployed $9 billion since the opening of its New Dehli office in 2016.

What steps are being taken to ensure better monitoring of the managers of subsidiaries of the Caisse in India, and all over the world, to make sure this kind of situation doesn't happen again?

(263) Mr. Beauchemin (Marguerite-Bourgeoys) – 20 March 2025

To the Minister of Economy, Innovation and Energy

In February 2025, the newspaper Journal de Montréal published a series of articles that underlined growing concern among industry experts: Québec, once a leader in AI, now appears to be slowing down when compared to increased international efforts, in particular in France and the United States, as well as with initiatives such as DeepSeek.

Since becoming a pioneer in AI in 2018, Québec has fallen behind for multiple reasons, including the lack of a specific legislative framework on AI, the lack of an independent regulatory body, and insufficient investments in AI training and skills development.

Although AI is a rapidly emerging sector, the training and skills development investments required to meet the needs of the labour market are deemed insufficient. In Québec, only 12% of businesses foresee integrating AI into the production of goods and the provision of services, while two out of three companies recognize that they must train their current employees in the use of AI.

Can the Minister tell us what the Québec government is doing to adapt the economy to the evolution of AI, in particular with the emergence of generative AI, and to encourage the adoption of AI by Québec companies?

(264) Mr. Beauchemin (Marguerite-Bourgeoys) – 20 March 2025
To the Minister for the Economy

U.S. President Donald Trump's threat of tariffs underscores the importance, now more than ever, of breaking down as many barriers to interprovincial trade as possible. Despite the signing of the Canadian Free Trade Agreement (CFTA) in 2017, Québec has the most restrictions still in force than any other province.

Since the beginning of the threats and the tariff war with the United States, the Minister has participated in several Committee on Internal Trade meetings with representatives of other provinces and territories, overseen by the federal government. However, no major announcement has been made in this regard in Québec.

Can the Minister s provide us with a list of exceptions, from among the 36 exceptions applicable to Québec in the CFTA, that are likely to be partially or completely removed?
