WRITTEN QUESTIONS

are published each Wednesday*

(290) Ms. Massé (Sainte-Marie–Saint-Jacques) – 1 May 2025
To the Minister of Education

In its 2024 November report, the Auditor General of Québec revealed major shortcomings in the support offered to First Nations and Inuit students, in particular with regard to the accessibility and adequacy of budgetary measures. Another concern is that many school service centres still have to rely on the federal Jordan’s Principle program because of administrative delays at the Ministère de l’Éducation du Québec.

On 18 December 2024, 10 orders in council of the Conseil exécutif confirmed the renewal of agreements between certain school service centres and the federal government under Jordan’s Principle until 2027 (administrative orders 1810-2024 to 1819-2024, Gazette No. 2 of 08-01-2025). However, in this context, provincial budget measure 15061 on the educational success of Indigenous students and reconciliation was suspended for fiscal years 2024–2025 to 2026–2027, with no clearly defined replacement solution.

We acknowledge that measure 15061 has been combined with measure 15064 on support for northern development, under new measure 15060 on Indigenous peoples and nordicity (Ministère de l’Éducation du Québec, 2024, Règles budgétaires de fonctionnement pour les années 2024-2025 à 2026-2027 : Éducation préscolaire et enseignement primaire et secondaire. Centres de services scolaires et commissions scolaires, p. 103.) However, the budget information available to date shows that the increase announced in 2024–2025 for measure 15061 is still clearly insufficient ($2 million for other initiatives, $0.4 million for the continuation of measures), and that no increase has been planned for measure 15064, which however directly concerns northern realities (2024–2025 school year highlights section of the previously mentioned document).

In this context, my questions are the following:

1. What concrete measures will the Ministère de l'Éducation implement to ensure equitable and sufficient support for Indigenous students, in particular those living in the northern territories, following the consolidation of measures under section 15060?
2. How does the Ministère intend to follow up on the Auditor General of Québec's recommendations with regard to First Nations and Inuit students?
3. Can the Minister of Education provide a complete breakdown of the projects funded under measure 15061 as at 13 December 2024, as well as the remaining budget for the projects?

It is essential that the Government reaffirm its commitment to the educational success of Indigenous students by guaranteeing that they have funding that is stable, equitable and adapted to their realities.
