WRITTEN QUESTIONS

Questions already placed on the Order Paper are published each Wednesday

- (89) Mr. Cliche-Rivard (Saint-Henri–Sainte-Anne) – 9 December 2025
To the Minister of Immigration, Francization and Integration

In 2024, the Government decided to limit the number of Québec selection certificates issued for family sponsorship applications, claiming that this measure would facilitate the organization of the reception capacity. On 8 July, the Québec government announced that it had reached its 2024–2026 family sponsorship quota as of 26 June 2025, thereby suspending the processing of new sponsorship applications for spouses, conjugal partners, and dependent children aged 18 and over until 25 June 2026. In his 2026–2029 immigration plan, the Minister capped the number of permanent residents in this category at 10,000. Yet this decision has not resulted in improved processing times in Québec, but rather increased distress for many separated families, who had hoped that this would accelerate the processing of permanent residence applications.

As of today, family reunification cases are processed in 12 months in the rest of Canada, whereas the average processing time for similar cases remains 37 months in Québec, or more than three times as long.

According to a summary assessment of data provided by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada (IRCC) on its website, the number of sponsorship cases for spouses and children that are awaiting processing in Québec (12,200) and abroad (19,900) is more than 32,000.

According to a Léger survey, commissioned by the collective Québec Réunifié, 67% of Quebecers believe that processing times for family reunification cases should meet the 12-month Canadian standard, while 64% consider that family reunification should be an important priority for governments.

My questions to the Minister are the following:

- 1) How many family reunification selection certificates have been issued by the department since 26 June 2024?

- 2) Can the Minister tell us if reducing the number of permanent selection certificates in the family reunification category has indeed accelerated the processing of permanent resident applications for sponsored persons?
- 3) How does the Minister intend to put an end to the unequal treatment of family reunification applications for families settled in Québec compared to those in the rest of Canada?

(90) Mr. Cliche-Rivard (Saint-Henri–Sainte-Anne) – 9 December 2025
To the Minister of Immigration, Francization and Integration

For several years, there have been calls to reduce the number of temporary immigrants in Québec. However, according to numbers released by the Ministère de l'Immigration, de la Francisation et de l'Intégration, many of these people are protected persons who have been waiting for permanent residence for many years.

In its 2026–2028 immigration plan, the federal government announced a two-year, one-time initiative to “streamline the transition of approximately 115,000 Protected Persons in Canada who are already on a pathway to permanent residence and in alignment with their protected status under domestic and international law.” These admissions will be processed separately from the announced regular permanent residence admission targets because of the enormous processing backlog and the importance of the stability of statuses for these people’s full integration.

Québec has accepted nearly 55,000 refugees who hold a Québec selection certificate. However, the target announced in the 2026–2029 immigration plan is only 5,750 refugees and persons in similar situations per year for the next three years. At that rate, it is calculated that protected persons residing in Québec will obtain permanent residence after approximately 12 years. As the Immigration and Refugee Board has concluded that they cannot return home, these people are artificially inflating the temporary resident numbers.

These people have already been settled in Québec for many years. They have developed networks, the vast majority of them are working, they have learned French, and their children here study in French. They have experienced long periods of instability. They are contributing to Québec society and would contribute even more if they could count on the stability that permanent residence will give them.

My question to the Minister is the following:

Does the Minister of Immigration, Francization, and Integration intend to process the permanent residences of protected persons settled in Quebec separately from the targets in order to accelerate their full integration into Quebec society and thereby reduce the number of temporary residents?
