Motion moved by the Member for Robert-Baldwin under Standing Order 97:

THAT the National Assembly take note of the alarming increase in violence against women in Québec, in particular domestic violence, which is reflected, among other things, in the many femicides already committed since the beginning of 2026 and in the critical overcrowding of women's shelters and external services, whose capacity has been greatly exceeded;

THAT it be alarmed that, last year, SOS violence conjugale received more than 19,000 requests for shelter and that more than one in two women were turned away due to a lack of space and resources and that, in some regions, the refusal rate was nearly 67%;

THAT it note that the actions taken by the Government in recent years have not curbed the increase in violence against women, that this violence continues to increase, and that it is appropriate and necessary to enhance the policy framework in this regard;

THAT, lastly, it demand that the Government urgently table an update to the 2022–2027 government strategy to fight against sexual violence and domestic violence and to rebuild trust, which is based in particular on predictability of funding for shelters and support services, increased shelter capacity and improved prevention, early detection and support services, including for women experiencing homelessness.
