THAT it express its profound sadness and deep concern regarding the femicides that have left Québec in mourning recently, with several women murdered in a context of domestic violence or by an ex-partner in past weeks and months;

26 February 2026

THAT it recall that this tragic reality illustrates the persistence of gender-based violence that continues to plague our society and leaves families in mourning.

THAT it recognize that femicide is the most extreme expression of violence against women, who also experience physical, psychological and sexual abuse both within and outside of intimate relationships, and that this violence remains a public health and safety issue that requires ongoing attention;

THAT it pay tribute to all the victims of violence against women, to their loved ones and to the families affected by this unacceptable loss;

THAT it applaud the efforts made by the Québec government to implement many of the recommendations resulting from work on domestic violence prevention and support for gender equality, including the implementation of government strategies, investments in projects for equality and honorary awards in recognition of those working to advance the cause;

THAT it recognize, however, that much remains to be done, in particular in the prevention of violence, the protection of women at risk, the ongoing training of frontline workers, and the implementation of key measures to prevent future tragedies;

THAT, lastly, it reaffirm its commitment to work constructively with all bodies concerned — governmental, community, municipal and citizen — to make the safety of women and de facto equality priority objectives, here in Québec and beyond our borders.

By leave of the Assembly, the motion was carried.

THAT it recognize and pay tribute to the history of struggles for justice, equality and dignity of Black Quebecers;

THAT, lastly, the National Assembly deplore the inequality and racism Québec’s Black communities still experience and underscore the work that remains to be done to achieve a more inclusive society.

By leave of the Assembly, a debate arose thereon.

The question was put on this motion, and an electronic division was thereupon demanded.

The motion was carried on the following vote:
