THAT the National Assembly underline the second edition of Violence and Bullying Prevention in Schools Week, held across Québec from 23 to 27 March 2026, under the theme “Do you have the right?”;

25 March 2026

THAT it recall that in school, much like everywhere else, respect for rules and limits is essential, that actions have consequences and that rights also come with responsibilities;

THAT it recognize that transmitting the values of respect, civic-mindedness and a sense of responsibility first starts at home and continues at school;

THAT it underline that school environments have the guidelines and resources to prevent violence and bullying, and that it is important to maintain efforts to ensure that they are used and implemented consistently according to the environment;

THAT it applaud the commitment of school personnel, parents and partners who work each day to provide a healthy and safe environment for students;

THAT it reiterate that the prevention of violence and bullying is based on collective mobilization and that it invite all of Québec society to participate in ensuring the well-being and educational success of all students.

By leave of the Assembly, the motion was carried.

By leave of the Assembly to set aside Standing Order 185, Mr. Leduc (Hochelaga-Maisonneuve), together with Ms. Déry, Minister of Employment, Ms. Rotiroti (Jeanne-Mance–Viger), Mr. Boissonneault (Arthabaska), Ms. Poulet (Laporte) and Mr. Marissal (Rosemont), moved:

THAT the National Assembly mark the 20th anniversary of the Québec Parental Insurance Plan, instated in 2006, and that it recall that it constituted a major breakthrough in the Québec family policy model;

THAT it highlight the key role of this insurance plan in the participation of women to the labour market, by promoting their return to work and helping reduce economic inequalities between men and women;

THAT it also underline the structuring role of this program in the evolution of social norms, in particular by encouraging greater involvement by fathers and a more equitable distribution of family responsibilities;

THAT, lastly, it reaffirm that the Québec Parental Insurance Plan, and the social innovations it makes possible, must remain an essential pillar of equality for all Québec parents.

The question was put on this motion, and an electronic division was thereupon demanded.

The motion was carried on the following vote:

(Division No. 131 in Appendix)
