ORDERS OF THE DAY

BUSINESS HAVING PRECEDENCE

- (1) Resuming the debate, adjourned on 7 May 2026, on the motion by the Premier, —That the Assembly approve the Government’s general policy.

And on the motions stating a grievance moved by:

The Leader of the Official Opposition:

THAT the National Assembly severely censure the CAQ government for its lack of concrete results, the weakening of its commitments to Quebecers, and a stale vision that is ill-suited to the challenges of today.

The Leader of the Second Opposition Group:

THAT the National Assembly censure the CAQ government for its negligence regarding the maintenance of our public infrastructure, its lack of ambition in carrying out an economic and ecological transition that addresses current issues, and its marked disinterest for the difficulties experienced by Québec tenants.

The Member for Marquette:

THAT the National Assembly severely censure the CAQ government for its lack of measures to address the rising cost of living, in a context where food banks face a substantial increase in requests and Quebecers have to go into debt to eat, as well as for ignoring that reality in the Opening Speech.

The Member for Verdun:

THAT the National Assembly severely censure the CAQ government for its inability to curb the sharp rise in the cost of groceries and to protect Québec households with regard to the excessive profits of large grocery chains.

The Member for Bourassa-Sauvé:

THAT the National Assembly severely censure the CAQ government for its lack of vision and ambition in education, its lone guideline being to avoid slashing, this time, the already strained budgets for services to students.

The Member for Mont-Royal–Outremont:

THAT the National Assembly censure the Government for having damaged the attractiveness and stability of Québec's higher education network and for having no plan to address the consequences of its own policies.

The Member for Acadie:

THAT the National Assembly severely censure the Government for its intent to continue its constitution project without consulting the First Nations and the Inuit.

The Member for Laurier-Dorion:

THAT the National Assembly censure the CAQ government for removing tenants from its priorities and for policies that impoverish them, in a context where tenants are severely impacted by the housing crisis and the average rent has increased by 64% over the last eight years.

The Member for Jacques-Cartier:

THAT the National Assembly severely censure the CAQ government for its Opening Speech, which does not meet the needs of the youth and which lacks vision for future generations.

(15) Mr. Arseneau (Îles-de-la-Madeleine) – 26 May 2026
To the Minister of Health

Long COVID is a new condition that is still not well understood and for which there is no specific treatment.

Every COVID-19 reinfection puts people at risk for long COVID. The more times a person is infected, the greater the risk. For people who already have long COVID, each new reinfection increases the risk of worsening or recurring symptoms and this causes a lot of anxiety. Reducing infections is one of the best ways to protect long-term health.

Even though not all people with long COVID are immunocompromised, the risks of complications, worsening symptoms or even the onset of new symptoms are very real. Their system is significantly more fragile and impaired. It is inconceivable that people with this condition are not able to protect themselves adequately and free of charge to avoid health complications, deterioration and even disability. The impacts on those affected, and on the healthcare system and the labor market, are very real.

One of the objectives of vaccination is to reduce complications. Some chronic conditions are considered when determining vaccine eligibility, but long COVID is not one of them.

Since fall 2025, COVID-19 vaccination has been available free of charge for the following people:

- people who reside in CHSLDs or RPAs or live in other group settings with a high proportion of elderly and vulnerable people;
- people 65 years of age or over;
- people 6 months of age or over who are immunocompromised, on dialysis or living with certain chronic conditions;
- pregnant people;
- adults living in remote and isolated areas; and
- health care workers.

The number of doses and the intervals between doses depend on a person's age, vaccination history and health status. The COVID-19 vaccine is authorized for people six months of age or over who want to reduce their risk of complications.

The document "Introduction à la COVID longue - Document d'accompagnement à la vidéo d'information", produced by the Sous-ministériat à la santé physique et à la pharmaceutique, in collaboration with the Direction des communications of the Ministère de la Santé et des Services sociaux, describes long COVID as a complex condition that impacts many aspects of life and can affect health in many ways, including impairment of the immune system and chronic health issues. The symptoms of long COVID are numerous and varied. There are more than 200 symptoms and they can affect many body systems, including the immune system, the nervous system, the respiratory system and the cardiovascular system. The impacts on the ability to function in daily life can differ from person to person.

According to the Québec government and Health Canada, vaccination is generally recommended, even for those with long COVID. It protects against reinfection (which can worsen symptoms) and may help reduce or stabilize persistent symptoms, although outcomes vary. It is a key strategy for preventing new infections. Vaccination reduces the risk of COVID-19 reinfection, thereby preventing long COVID from worsening.

I am certain that vaccination is the best way to protect people with long COVID, but some of them have more risk factors than those who are eligible. Why put the health of people who are already affected at risk? The only way to protect them as much as possible is to prevent reinfection, and vaccination is the best way to achieve this.

My question to the Minister of Health: Why not include people with long COVID on the list of vulnerable and at-risk people eligible for free COVID-19 vaccination?
