(46) Mr. Bonnardel (Shefford) – 8 June 2010

To the Minister of Finance:

The Board of Directors of the Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec now comprises 14 members. Notwithstanding the presence of a person to represent the interests of workers, retirees are still excluded from the board. In fact, whereas organizations like OMERS, the Régie des rentes du Québec, and the CARRA make a place for retirees on their boards of directors, retirees in Québec still have no way of directly ensuring the prudent management of their savings in the Caisse. In a spirit of transparency, and considering that more than half of the assets managed by the Caisse belong to pension plans in the public and parapublic sectors, would it not be pertinent to appoint a person to represent the interests of retired persons on the Board of Directors of the Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec?

To the Minister of Sustainable Development, Environment and Parks:
