BUSINESS STANDING IN THE NAME OF MEMBERS IN OPPOSITION

(33)5 October 2010

Motion by the Member for Mercier :

THAT the National Assembly demand that the Government respond in a positive way to the claims of the World March of Women by protecting the accessibility, the universality and the quality of all of the public services, particularly the health and social services network and the education network, in order to counter the negative impact that their privatization, their cost and their underfinancing have on the right of women to equality and on social solidarity in Québec.

Part 5

WRITTEN QUESTIONS

Questions already placed on the Order Paper are published each Wednesday

(45) Mr. St-Arnaud (Chambly) – 27 April 2010

To the Minister of Public Security :

1. As of 27 April 2010, how many arrest warrants, issued by the Quebec police departments as a whole, are still in force?
2. How many of these arrest warrants were issued following the failure of an accused to appear in court, as scheduled?

(46) Mr. Bonnardel (Shefford) – 8 June 2010

To the Minister of Finance:

The Board of Directors of the Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec now comprises 14 members. Notwithstanding the presence of a person to represent the interests of workers, retirees are still excluded from the board. In fact, whereas organizations like OMERS, the Régie des rentes du Québec, and the CARRA make a place for retirees on their boards of directors, retirees in Québec still have no way of directly ensuring the prudent management of their savings in the Caisse. In a spirit of transparency, and considering that more than half of the assets managed by the Caisse belong to pension plans in the public and parapublic sectors, would it not be pertinent to appoint a person to represent the interests of retired persons on the Board of Directors of the Caisse de dépôt et placement du Québec?

(48) Mr. Caire (La Peltrie) – 10 June 2010

To the Chair of the Conseil du trésor :

According to the Minister of Finance, the provisions of Bill 100, An Act to implement certain provisions of the Budget Speech of 30 March 2010, reduce the debt and return to a balanced budget in 2013-2014, will apply to approximately 600 organizations that report to the Government of Québec.

What are these 600 organizations, and what is their distribution according to:

- the category to which they belong (budgetary organizations, organizations other than budgetary, those that carry out fiduciary operations whose personnel is subject to the Public Service Act, and other variants);
- the ministry to which they report and, if applicable, the program or program item in which they are inserted;
- their annual operating budget;
- the number of persons they employ;
- and the membership of their board of directors, if applicable.

(49) Mr. Bonnardel (Shefford) – 22 September 2010

To the Minister of Municipal Affairs, Regions and Land Occupancy :

Under the provisions of section 79.1 of the Act respecting the Régie du logement, the costs invested by homeowners for rent collection or eviction of tenants may be reimbursed by the Société d'habitation du Québec, to the amount of $6 for postal service of a motion to institute proceedings to each party and of $20 for said service by bailiff. However, with the rise in the cost of living in recent years, the amounts reimbursed are considerably lower than the real costs paid by the plaintiffs. In situations where homeowners win their case, they must accept considerable losses with regard to cost for service of a motion to institute proceedings. For instance, in Waterloo, in the riding of Shefford, the services of a bailiff are non-existent. Consequently, it costs $ 8 for the letter of notification and $ 28.50 for delivery of the letter by a bailiff from Granby. On the other hand, postal delivery of the service of motion to institute proceedings costs $ 9.04.

In this context, why does the Minister of Municipal Affairs, Regions and Land Occupancy not amend the Act respecting the Régie du logement in order to give more flexibility to the commissioners, allowing them to reimburse costs in accordance with the current rates ?

(50) Mr. Bonnardel (Shefford) – 22 September 2010

To the Minister of Sustainable Development, Environment and Parks:

Since the phenomenon caused by the blue-green algae (cyanobacteria), the Ministère du Développement durable, de l'Environnement et des Parcs regulations in the field of sewage disposal and wastewater treatment are so strict that it is practically impossible for owners to respect them in their entirety. Among other things, the specification that the percentage of rejection must be 0.05 % is unfeasible under the current technology. Hence, for residences isolated and located above a lake, no existing system can comply with the required norms of the Ministère, except for sealed septic tanks. Indeed, this type of tank is appropriate for installations such as cottages, but is not appropriate for main residences. For the same reasons, costs relating to sewage disposal and wastewater treatment systems of commercial buildings have become exorbitant for their owners. Consequently, while the Ministère du Développement durable, de l'Environnement et des Parcs hesitates in its search for a solution to this problem, the obsolescence of the existing sewage disposal and wastewater treatment of many residences and businesses brings about the complete and total disposal of wastewater in the environment.

Given this situation, what rapid and concrete action does the Minister envisage to undertake in order to ensure compliance with the Environment Act, while helping owners to install sewage disposal and wastewater treatment systems which are both reasonable in cost and appropriate for their needs?

(51) Mr. Simard (Richelieu) – 28 September 2010

To the Chair of the Conseil du trésor :

For the 2009-2010 fiscal year, provide a list of the expenses of each of the departments and agencies under their responsibility :

1. For the development of new publicity.
2. For media marketing.
3. For sponsorship.
4. For promotional articles.

Indicate the total amount that will serve as a basis for the 25 % reduction in publicity, as announced in the 2010-2011 budget and in Bill 100.
