(1) the improvement to the QST rebate in respect of a new residential unit;

It further amends the Taxation Act to make amendments similar to those made to the Income Tax Act of Canada by Bill C-10 (Statutes of Canada, 2009, chapter 2), assented to on 12 March 2009. The bill thus gives effect mainly to harmonization measures announced in Information Bulletins published by the Ministère des Finances in 2009. It also amends the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu to make amendments similar to those made to the Excise Tax Act by Bill C-62 (Statutes of Canada, 2009, chapter 32), assented to on 15 December 2009, and that concern the mandatory electronic filing of tax returns. “1029.8.116.18. The application referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16 must be filed with the Minister no later than 11 months after the end of the particular month in respect of which the application is made, by means of

(a) if the eligible individual is resident in Québec on the 31 December preceding the 12-month period that includes the particular month and that begins on 1 July of a calendar year, the fiscal return the individual is required to file under section 1000 for the taxation year that ends on that 31 December, or would be required to file if the individual had tax payable for that taxation year under this Part; and

(b) in any other case, the prescribed form containing prescribed information.

If, at the beginning of a particular month, an eligible individual ordinarily lives with another eligible individual who is the individual’s cohabiting spouse, the application of only one of them may be considered to be valid in respect of the particular month.

The Minister may, at any time, extend the time for filing the application to which the first paragraph refers.

“1029.8.116.19. The document to which the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16 refers is

(a) if the individual is resident in Québec on 31 December of the base year, the fiscal return the individual is required to file under section 1000 for the year, or would be required to file if the individual had tax payable for the year under this Part;

(b) if the individual is not resident in Québec on 31 December of the base year but is resident in Canada throughout that year, the return of income the individual is required to file under Part I of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement) for that year or a statement of income for that year that the individual files by means of the prescribed form containing prescribed information; and

(c) in any other case, a statement of income for the base year that the individual files by means of the prescribed form containing prescribed information.

If, in respect of a child, an individual receives for a particular month an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable and, for the base year relating to the particular month, the document that a person who is the individual, or, if applicable, the individual's cohabiting spouse at the beginning of that month, is required to file is any of the documents specified in subparagraphs b and c of the first paragraph, the document is deemed to be filed by the person if the corresponding document referred to in paragraph b or c of section 1029.8.61.23 has been sent to the Régie des rentes du Québec.

“1029.8.116.20. If, at the beginning of a particular month, an eligible individual is not the owner, lessee or sublessee of the individual's eligible dwelling and the particular person who is the owner, lessee or sublessee of the dwelling is confined to a prison or a similar institution at that time and was, immediately before being confined, the cohabiting spouse of the individual with whom the particular person ordinarily lived, the eligible individual rather than the particular person is, for the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16, deemed, at the beginning of the particular month, to be the owner, lessee or sublessee, as applicable, of the dwelling.

“1029.8.116.21. If, at the beginning of a particular month, an eligible individual is not the owner, lessee or sublessee of the individual's eligible dwelling and one or more particular persons who are the owners of the dwelling at that time are children in respect of whom the individual receives, for the particular month, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable, the eligible individual rather than each of the particular persons is, for the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16, deemed, at the beginning of the particular month, to be the owner of the dwelling.

“1029.8.116.22. An individual who receives, in a particular month, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual's tax payable for a taxation year and who ceases to be an eligible individual in that month shall notify the Minister to that effect before the end of the first month that follows the particular month.

“1029.8.116.23. An eligible individual shall notify the Minister of any change in circumstances that may affect the individual’s entitlement to receive an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable for a taxation year, and shall do so before the end of the month that follows the month in which the change occurs.

If information is communicated by the Régie des rentes du Québec in relation to information referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.35 or by the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity in relation to information referred to in the second paragraph of that section, the Minister may consider that a notice of change in circumstances has been communicated to the Minister.

“1029.8.116.24. If a change in circumstances has the effect of increasing the amount that an individual is entitled to receive in respect of an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable for a taxation year, the amount is revised from the beginning of the particular month that follows the month in which the change in circumstances occurs, unless the Minister is notified of the change only after the end of the eleventh month that follows the particular month, in which case the amount is revised from the beginning of the eleventh month that precedes the month in which the Minister is notified of the change.

“1029.8.116.25. The Minister shall determine the set of amounts that an eligible individual is entitled to receive for each 12-month period that begins on 1 July of each calendar year in respect of the amounts each of which is deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable for a taxation year and shall send the individual a notice of determination in that respect.

The set of amounts determined under the first paragraph is revised during the year if a change in circumstances has the effect of changing it and a new notice is sent by the Minister to the eligible individual.

If, before 1 January of a particular taxation year, the Minister sends a notice of determination concerning a set of amounts for the period described in the first paragraph that includes that date, the amount determined by the Minister that is specified in the notice for each of the months following the month of December is deemed to be equal to the amount that would have been determined if, at the time of the determination, section 1029.6.0.6 had been applied for that year in respect of each of the amounts referred to in subparagraphs h.1 and h.2 of the fourth paragraph of that section.

“§3. — Payment

“1029.8.116.26. The Minister shall pay to an eligible individual who is entitled to receive, for a particular month of a taxation year, an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable for that year, in the first five days of the particular month, the amount determined in respect of the individual for that month.

“1029.8.116.27. In exceptional circumstances and if convinced that it is in the family’s interest, the Minister may pay to the cohabiting spouse of an eligible individual an amount that the individual is entitled to receive in respect of an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable, if that spouse is also an eligible individual.

“1029.8.116.28. The Minister may require that an individual who applies for or receives an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable for a taxation year provide the Minister with documents or information so that the Minister may ascertain whether the individual is entitled to receive that amount.

The Minister may suspend the payment of an amount referred to in the first paragraph until the Minister has been provided with the required documents or information if the individual fails to provide the required documents or information before the expiry of 45 days after the date of the request.

The Minister may suspend the payment of an amount referred to in the first paragraph for the duration of an inquiry on the individual’s eligibility. The Minister shall conduct the inquiry diligently.

“1029.8.116.29. The Minister is not bound to pay the amount that is determined in respect of an eligible individual for a particular month in respect of an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable for a taxation year, if the amount is less than $2.

However, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount referred to in the first paragraph or an amount determined in respect of the eligible individual in respect of such a deemed amount for a subsequent month that is included in the 12-month period, beginning on 1 July of a calendar year, in which the particular month is included, must be paid to the individual in the first subsequent month included in that period in which the aggregate reaches or exceeds $2.

“§4. — Administrative provisions

“1029.8.116.30. If an amount is refunded to an individual, or allocated to another of the individual’s liabilities, in respect of an amount that, for a particular month, is deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable for a taxation year, interest is to be paid to the individual on the amount for the period ending on the day the overpayment is refunded or allocated and beginning on the day that is the latest of

- (a) the sixth day of the particular month;
- (b) the forty-sixth day following the day on which the application referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.116.16 has been filed with the Minister for the 12-month period that begins on 1 July of a calendar year and that includes the particular month;
- (c) in the case of an additional amount determined for the particular month following a change in circumstances, the forty-sixth day following the day on which the Minister has been notified of the change;
- (d) in the case of an additional amount determined for the particular month following a written application to amend the fiscal return filed under this Part for the base year relating to the particular month, the forty-sixth day following the day on which the Minister received the application; and
- (e) in the case of an additional amount determined for the particular month following an amendment of the return of income filed under Part I of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement) for the base year relating to the particular month or of the income statement filed by means of the prescribed form for that base year, the forty-sixth day following the day on which the amendment has been brought to the attention of the Minister.

However, if the total of the amounts of interest determined under the first paragraph in respect of an individual for any month included in a 12-month period that begins on 1 July of a calendar year is less than $1, the Minister is not bound to pay that amount to the individual.

“1029.8.116.31. The amount by which the amount that is paid to an individual in respect of an amount that, for a particular month, is deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable for a taxation year, exceeds the amount that should have been paid to the individual for that month, is deemed to be tax payable by the individual under this Part from the date of that payment and bears interest from that date to the day of payment at the rate set under section 28 of the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu (chapter M-31).

“1029.8.116.32. If, for a particular month, the Minister has refunded to an individual, or allocated to another of the individual’s liabilities, an amount exceeding that to which the individual was entitled in respect of an amount that, for that month, is deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable for a taxation year, the individual and the person who at the beginning of the particular month is the individual’s cohabiting spouse with whom the individual ordinarily lives are solidarily liable for the payment of the excess amount.

However, nothing in this section limits the liability of the individual or of that person under any other provision of this Act.

“1029.8.116.33. The Minister may at any time assess the cohabiting spouse of an individual in respect of an amount payable under section 1029.8.116.32, and this Book applies, with the necessary modifications, to that assessment as if it had been made under Title II.

“1029.8.116.34. If a person is a debtor under a fiscal law or about to become so, or is in debt to the State under an Act, other than a fiscal law, referred to in a regulation made under the second paragraph of section 31 of the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu (chapter M-31) and the person is, for a particular month, a recipient under a financial assistance program provided for in Chapter I or II of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1), the Minister may not, despite that section 31, allocate to the payment of the debt of that person more than 50% of the amount to be paid to the person for the particular month in respect of an amount deemed under section 1029.8.116.16 to be an overpayment of the person’s tax payable for a taxation year, if the person’s status as a recipient under such a program has been brought to the attention of the Minister at least 21 days before the date provided for the payment of that amount.

“1029.8.116.35. Any contestation in respect of the accuracy of information that is communicated to the Minister by the Régie des rentes du Québec in relation to a cohabiting spouse, to an individual who receives an amount deemed under section 1029.8.61.18 to be an overpayment of the individual’s tax payable, to the person in respect of whom an individual receives the deemed amount or to the custody, shared or not, of that person, and that is used by the Minister for the purposes of this division, must be brought in accordance with sections 1029.8.61.39 to 1029.8.61.41.

Any contestation in respect of the accuracy of information that is communicated to the Minister by the Minister of Employment and Social Solidarity in relation to an individual’s eligibility to either of the financial assistance programs provided for in Chapters I and II of Title II of the Individual and Family Assistance Act (chapter A-13.1.1) and that is used by the Minister for the purposes of this division, must be brought in accordance with Chapter III of Title III of that Act.”
