EXPLANATORY NOTES

The object of this bill is to subject the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles to the Act respecting the governance of state-owned enterprises and to introduce into the Act constituting the Société new governance rules adapted to the Société.

The new rules concern, among other things, the composition of the board of directors. The bill states that the board of directors is to consist of 15 members, including the chair of the board and the president and chief executive officer. It prescribes that at least eight of the members, including the chair, must qualify as independent directors in the opinion of the Government. The bill also separates the functions of the chair of the board and those of the president and chief executive officer and prescribes the rules of appointment for both positions.

Subjecting the Société to the Act respecting the governance of state-owned enterprises will make new rules applicable relating among other things to the operation of the board of directors, the establishment of the committees under the authority of the board of directors, and the disclosure and publication of information.

Lastly, the bill includes transitional provisions and consequential amendments.

LEGISLATION AMENDED BY THIS BILL:

- Act respecting the Société de développement des entreprises culturelles (R.S.Q., chapter S-10.002);
- Act respecting the governance of state-owned enterprises and amending various legislative provisions (2006, chapter 59).
